I The Wars of the Roses

II In 1455, a civil war was begun to decide who should be king of England. It was fought between the supporters of two families: the House of Lancaster and the House of York.

II This war was called the Wars of the Roses, because the symbol of Clancaster was a red rose and the symbol of York of Lancaster was a red rose and the symbol of York of Bosworth Field in 1485.

If king Richard III of the House of York was killed in the battle and Henry Tudor, the leader of the House of Vork was killed in the battle and Henry Tudor, the leader of the House of Lancaster, became king York, and united the two families.

If Henry was the first timp of the House of York Control The Symbol of the House of Tudor was a red rose with a withte rose inside it as a sign that the Houses of York and Lancaster were now allies.

Plus many other outstanding features that make this probably the most thorough and enjoyable way to prepare for the "Life in the United Kingdom" Test!
